SEC SUBPOENAS RELEASED BY CITY ATTORNEY

Under the California Public Records Act, several news organizations requested the seven subpoenas that were issued to city employees on December 16, 2004 by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Today, City Attorney Michael Aguirre released three of the seven subpoenas to the news media. The subpoenas request the following high level city officials to testify before the SEC in February 2005: City Manager Lamont Ewell, Financial Management Director Lisa Irvine and Assistant City Attorney Les Girard. The other four subpoenas were issued to non-management employees and were not released by the City Attorney. The packet of information can be picked up at the City Attorney's Office from 10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. today, 1200 Third Avenue, Suite 1620.
